

REMARKS

In this Response, claims 58, 72, 83, 108, 110, and 111 have been amended. No new matter has been added. Support for these amendments can be found in the originally-filed specification.

Rejection of Claims 58, 59, 61-79, and 82-111 Under 35 U.S.C. § 101

Claims 58, 59, 61-79, and 82-111 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. On page 2 of the Office Action, the Examiner states, “No physically transformation is recited and additionally, the final result of the claim is executable software for a financial system which does not claim a tangible result because the result is not tangible embodied on a computer readable medium.” This rejection has been rendered moot in view of the amendments to claims 58, 72, 83, 108, 110, and 111. More specifically, claim 58 has been amended to recite “wherein the delivered services are displayed on the remote device.” Claim 72 has been amended to recite “displaying the delivered services on the first remote device.” Claim 83 has been amended to recite “wherein the delivered services are displayed on the remote device.” Claim 108 has been amended to recite “wherein the delivered services are displayed on the remote device.” Claim 110 has been amended to recite “displaying the delivered services on the first remote device.” Claim 111 has been amended to recite “wherein the delivered services are displayed on the remote device.” As amended, the pending claims have a tangible result on a computer readable medium.

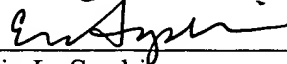

Therefore, the undersigned representative respectfully requests that the Examiner withdraw the rejection of claims 58, 59, 61-79, and 82-111 under 35 U.S.C. § 101.

CONCLUSION
